Gold quoted in New York at the close 104%. here brokers offer 10314. The New York Bulletin states that "the banks and brokers doing an investment business report that each mail brings orders to sell railroad shares which have been out of the street for many years. Notwithstanding that the upward speculation has been overdone, and that there are good reasons; conceding everything that is claimed for the crops, why there should be a decided reaction in prices, it is nevertheless very langerous to sell stocks short, such is the inancial strength of Vanderbilt, Gould, Sage, Geene and the cluster of wealthy speculators known as the 'Twenty-third street party,' all of whom have been engaged in the movement to advance prices, and most, if not all, of whom are believed to be large holders of stocks, some of them holding more than they were ever loaded with before." Our tocal market is clear of anything like news, stocks and bonds exciting little interest, but some gas stock could find buyers.

The New York Bul-letin, of Tuesday, reports: "The business accomplished on spots was not very large, and the outlet offered for stock was in the main on me account, but there appeared to be a greater amount of interest shown by the buyers in attendance, and the result was to increase the firmness. The amount offering was crease the firmness. The amount obtaining was not large; the broken assortments continue to present a free and quick selection. On contracts there was a pretty good business doing, with the general turn upward, and the market undergoing quite a reaction along the entire line, although operations are still confined largely to near-by options. The favorable tenor of the cable advices gave the start this morning, the more so that private accounts morning, the more so that private accounts were also encouraging. EDUCATIONAL.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI THE next session will open on Thursday, September 27, 1877, and close on Thursday, June 27, 1878. The University is Hereafter Entirely Free The only fee paid by students is one of $10 per session, for fuel, by those who room in the dormitories, and of $5 per session by those who room elsewhere. The entire expenses need not exceed $125 per year.

Board of excellent quality may be had at $10 and $12 per month, by paying morathly, in advance. The necessary expenses of a student, omitting books and clothing, need not, therefore, exceed $125 to $150 per session. The departments of Chemistry and Natural History, and of Physics and Astronomy, are provided with a good supply of apparatus for experiment and illustration. The University, Law and Society Libraries, contain several thousand volumes, and will be increased. The course of instruction is thorough, and the Faculty is composed of able, experienced, christian men.

The University occupies a beautiful site, near the village of Oxford, in the midst of an exceptionally healthy section of country; and is, in a measure, free from those seductive influences by which so many young men are led astray in our cities and large towns.

The Law Department has been reorganized, and will be open for the reception of students at the beginning of the next session.

For healthfulness and beauty of location, the facilities it affords for the acquisition of a thorough education, the moral and christian influences thrown around young men, and for Cheapness, this institution is not surpassed by any of like grade in the
